To Whom it May Concern:

I am pleased to be able to write this letter of recommendation for Sid Lewis and his class, Jammin' 101. Mr. Lewis first approached me regarding his class prior to the Spring 2006 semester. He said he had run this program before in the Chico area and was highly successful and even sent photos of his crowded class. I was skeptical about presenting this class in the Redding area, but was willing to try it out.

I was pleasantly surprised with the results of the class. Along with complimentary evaluations and high marks in satisfaction from the participants, a registrant actually called me to let me know personally how much fun he had and wanted to know if we've decided to offer the class again for next semester. The class turned out to really blend the talents and musical expertise of all the participants regardless of musical experience. I would like to offer this class every semester and can foresee this becoming a regular addition to our class offerings at Shasta College.

I would encourage any endeavor Mr. Lewis would like to pursue. Not only is he professional in his demeanor but he has shown an ability to make his students feel comfortable and can transfer his musical energy to them as well.

Sincerely,
